Sunset over Huxley - Anne Smart

Wardens' Corner

What a delight it was to open the doors of St Peter's on March 14th (Mothering Sunday) after so many weeks of closure and to welcome a very large congregation. The Family Service conducted by the Revd Trevor Davies was truly inspiring and the children as always played an exceptional part. A special thank-you to all who came and contributed. Whilst in this period of vacancy, we hope that together we can enjoy many such occasions, and I trust that most of our senior citizens will have by now received the vaccination to rid the world of this terrible virus. Thank you to all who attended and we look forward to your company whilst we navigate this period when we have no vicar in post.

Easter is one of the most important dates in the Church's calendar, with the Crucifixion on Good Friday and the Resurrection on Easter Day. It brings back memories for me of 2007 when ten members and associates of St Peter's travelled with the Rt Revd Dr Peter Forster, the then Bishop of Chester, to the Holy Land on one of his many many pilgrimages. It really was an awe-inspiring journey to retrace the final steps as Jesus walked, carrying the cross through the fourteen stations up to the place of crucifixion. It was an experience that will remain with me and my fellow pilgrims for ever. I especially invite you all to join us on Easter Day at 9.45am, when the Archdeacon of Chester, the Venerable Michael Gilbertson, will be conducting the Eucharist service. May I take this opportunity on behalf of my fellow churchwarden and the members of the Parochial Church Council, to wish you all a very Happy Easter.

Mike

Note: During the vacancy one of your two Churchwardens, Mike Whittingham or Malcolm Smart, will write a piece for "Wardens' Corner". If you have any questions about St Peter's Church, Hargrave, - or indeed any village organisation, please give one of us a call. We will try our best to help.

FOODBANK NEWS

A huge thank you to all those who have kindly sent or put food in our FOODBANK collection box, either at St Peter's or at the supermarket.

Last month we had a bumper collection which was really appreciated by the many families and individuals who were helped out. Thank you also to those who decided to help foodbank as part of their personal giving and who made very generous donations before or after Christmas time. Your generosity is remarkable and every penny goes to helping local people who are in the midst of real crisis. In these Covid19 days there are so many more families who have lost their jobs and who are finding it more difficult to put food on the table at home. This month we are asking for the following items and you might have one or two of them in your cupboard.

When you are doing your shopping, please remember those who are struggling financially. It is amazing how generous people are and we thank you for your donations.

I have to tell you that EVERY single thing that you donate goes to someone who is hungry and in need – and their family. Nothing goes anywhere else! and all the helpers are volunteers. The local food collection box is in Hargrave Church – either take your donation along or else give it to a member of the congregation, who will gladly bring it in for you.

Huxley C.E. Primary School

Once Upon a Time

There was a beautiful school in a small village in the heart of Cheshire, a primary school that had flourished for 160 years, from Victorian times, preparing generations of children for a life of learning, joy and fulfilment. Then that school fell on hard times and a plan was needed to save it from extinction.

Over the years, due to the growth of a society that favoured conglomeration and concentration, quantity over quality, small rural schools like Huxley often had to fight for survival. Though for generations the school thrived and witnesses abound with families of siblings still talking about the benefits of the early care and learning they received at Huxley, twice at least in its chequered history, Huxley was saved through the efforts of the local community. Governors, staff and numerous determined local supporters, argued, marched . . . and succeeded. Today, the same stubborn determination has prevailed.

A Pause in Schooling

Whatever choices are made by our Government for our small schools (which too often means closure), Huxley firmly believes in local education in local communities. Today, we realise that our society is undergoing profound changes and that we are, miraculously, in the right place at the right time. We believe we are at the forefront of this transformation. Educationists are now looking for new ways to adapt to a post-Covid society – for whether we like it or not, our society is changing. Before Covid, home schooling was already on the rise with families choosing to educate their children themselves to protect them from the stress and often achievement-gearred traditional education. Then, with Covid, home-schooling has been forced on everyone. While some parents have struggled with schooling their offspring, despite a high level of virtual support, others have discovered how enriching the experience has been. For the future “new-norm”, education in general is being rethought.

Huxley Rises Again

Exactly one year ago, Huxley Church of England School was threatened with closure due to the reduced number of pupils and its financially unsustainable situation. Closure seemed inevitable; the Governors of the school were forced to accept the reality of the situation, and prepared to enter a period of “Consultation with a View to Closure”. Then a strange situation arose. Due to the truly horrifying Covid pandemic, most normal activities came to a halt and the population went into hibernation. Consultation to close the school was suspended until the following Autumn. It was then that the Community of Huxley and Hargrave and parents became fully aware of the threat to their school. The Community rallied. An Action Group, bringing together various skills, but above all, tremendous determination, began planning ways to save the school. Finally, formal consultation began in October and in November the 5-Year Recovery Plan was ready to be submitted. Combined with weeks of active support from our villages and from neighbouring villages and a long wait over Christmas – the Local Authority approved the Plan and gave the School a chance to prove it could succeed.

An important part of the re-building of the school was to research an innovative approach to learning: flexi-schooling. This involved a complete re-thinking of the school’s offer by the Governors, the Head and Staff. For months, Huxley has been mentored by the founder of flexi-schooling, Hollinsclough, a Church of England Primary School in Derbyshire, without whose help little of this could have been achieved.

To the Rescue

Today, Huxley C of E Primary School will provide two options. Pupils can enrol full-time, accessing the national curriculum but the school is set to offer a new type of schooling where children can work part of the week at school and part at home. It will become Cheshire's first official "Flexi-school" and part of a network across England. The school will continue to provide a complete curriculum for full-time pupils but will be offering families the possibility of flexible schooling for their children.

What is Flexi-schooling?

Flexi schooling started in 2009 and is a new and innovative approach to education. It's an arrangement between parents and the school where the child is registered at the school and follows the National Curriculum in the normal way but attends the school only part time; the rest of the time being home educated under the supervision of parents.

The Headteacher's approval is required who will firstly assess the conditions and practicalities of the arrangement. Once agreed, flexi-schooling can offer a highly flexible education responsive to a child's need and interests. Importantly, it is not part-time education. It is recognised as full-time education but delivered in a hybrid format of both school attendance and elective Home Education.

And today?

The Head, the Staff and the new Chair and Board of Governors can announce with confidence that Huxley School is alive and kicking! Press announcements were made public on March 8. The interest shown in the school has been overwhelming with visits from BBC news cameras and radio microphones keen to tell the story of our survival to the world. Social media too has followed our progress with great interest achieving several hundred to over 18,000 people reached on individual Facebook posts, which is all being reflected in the numbers of new pupils already signing up to the school.

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK 2021

10-16 MAY

THERE WILL BE A BIG BREKKIE SOMETIME

WATCH THIS SPACE FOR THE DATE

It's 75 years since Christian Aid began to change people's lives, so how can we help this year? This year of pandemic and climate change means that our contributions are needed more than ever as we stand together with Christian Aid against the climate crisis, focussing on the continuing provision of reliable sources of water across Kenya. The coronavirus pandemic has made a lack of water more critical as handwashing with soap and water is vital to stay safe from the virus, as we all know.

Celebrating
75 Years of Christian Aid

We shall be having an envelope collection envelope in next month's newsletter, and in that edition there will be a list of convenient places where you can hand in your donation. Last year, for every £1 collected through Christian Aid, 86p was spent on helping people living in poverty.

The Joshua Tree

Is it April Fool's Day or should it be April Fools' day ?

April Fools Day has it's roots in many countries. Chaucer referred to March 32nd...

In France it is known as 'poisson d'avril' .

It requires a fish drawing pinned to a 'fools' back. In Brazil the 'Dia da Mentira' or 'Lie Day' when one tells lies and tricks a loved one. That could create a few problems.... My Aunt always maintained 'one should never put people in an embarrassing or humiliating position'. Maybe she was right, I have often thought the jokes were an excuse for the vindictive side of the perpetrators character!

Easter eggs and Simnel cake lets finish the 'lockdown fat gain' with style. Unless your one of the 'found new fitness group' that compare 'how many miles they have knocked off before breakfast'!

Those lovely rich Simnel cakes were originally for Mothering Sunday, but now normally eaten at Easter. A good cake is always welcome and following tradition is a good excuse! With news that our lockdown may be coming to an end, we can partake of Pauline's cakes at our coffee mornings again. I do hope you will join us for a coffee, cake and natter. The Joshua Tree needs us as the children need them.

As I am writing this we should be able to start our coffee mornings soon. Hopefully June 4th is the date for your diary...
